a) Review Operating Procedures Proposed by FAC

Brock Byers introduced the Operating Procedures for a sleep center for the homeless. There was discussion among the committee and several community members regarding details and the desire to find a solution before winter. The sleep center was reported to be a managed activity - low barrier shelter for adults. The committee will work to summarize the operating procedures into a short document to present to City Council.

b) Set Additional Meeting Proposed Dates: August 2,3,4,9,10, or 11

Meetings were set for August 4th and August 9th to further review the Operating Procedures Proposed by FAC.
